About The University of the West Indies (UWI)

The University of the West Indies (UWI) has four campuses that serve sixteen (16) member countries and communities across the English speaking Caribbean region. The campuses are located in Cave Hill, Barbados; Mona, Jamaica; St. Augustine, Trinidad and Tobago and the Open campuses serving the region. The institution offers: pre-university professional development, undergraduate, graduate courses and programs in online and blended learning formats.

The University of the West Indies is the largest resource for knowledge creation and knowledge application in the region. No other grouping in the Caribbean comprises as many diverse thinkers and technical experts working assiduously to translate knowledge into policy and positive action through close collaboration with governments, the private sector and other stakeholders in order to address the challenges of Caribbean island states and the wider world. For more information about the UWI, please visit www.uwi.edu.

Adopt-A-Student/$1-A-Day Drive

This effort is in support of the Foundation's Adopt-A-Student/$1-A-Day Drive and is one of the activities which the organization will be holding this year to intensify focus on its mission, in response to the dire need for financial support for an increasing number of students attending the University of the West Indies (UWI). We have identified one hundred (100) students who have achieved tremendous success in high school who are waiting to be admitted to the University of the West Indies. Unfortunately, due to financial constraints, these students are unable to pursue a tertiary education.

Please join us by donating $1.00 per day so we may be able to send all 100 hundred students to school this year. Individually we may not be able to change the world, but collectively we can make a big difference.

DONATE to EDUCATE!

We encourage you to help us make a difference in the lives of Caribbean students by supporting the upcoming fundraising events of the AFUWI or by donating to this worthy cause.

Donations can be made via Check, AMEX, MC, VISA or Discover credit cards and through our website at: www.afuwi.org. AFUWI is a 501 (c) (3) organization and all donations in cash or kind are tax deductible to the full extent of state and federal laws.
